

The doctor was curious:

“What have we here?” he said,
prodding and poking poor Ollie.

“If you wanted to keep the cold rain off your head, why on earth could you not use a brolly?”

“I’ve seen all kinds of people...”
(the doctor explained)

“even some who were already dead...
...but, in all of my years,
I’ve not once seen a boy who was trying to cook his own head!!!”
